PULSE SURVIVOR DESIGNS LIMITED EDITION ACCESSORIES TO RAISE MONEY FOR HOPE & HELP

WINTER PARK, FL, January 3, 2016—Angel Colon, a survivor of the Orlando Pulse shooting has been recognized by La Cle for their 2017 Unlocked Project for his courage and resilience. The Project highlights influential individuals by allowing them to design custom products to raise money for a cause that matters most to them. Mr. Colon has named Hope & Help as a recipient of the proceeds.

“We are very grateful to Mr. Colon for choosing Hope & Help as a recipient of the Unlocked Project’s proceeds. It underscores the goodness of his character, while at the same time, shines light on the continued need for support of Pulse victims and the Orlando LGBT community.”

– Lisa Barr, Executive Director

Mr. Colon was shot six times during the shooting, which left 49 dead and 53 wounded. Today, he serves as an advocate for the LGBT community, while also continuing his recovery.

Hope & Help is Central Florida’s largest and oldest HIV/AIDS prevention and support agency. Its mission is to inspire, equip, and mobilize people to take action against HIV/AIDS.
